

(Continued From Preceding Page.)

daughter, Hazel, to Nathan W. Lang, the marriage to take place in the near future.

Mrs. M. P. Underwood announces the engagement of her daughter, Helen, to John C. Tuddenham of this city. The wedding will take place the latter part of this month.

Miss Mary Lloyd Carroll of Oregon and Jay Jensen, Jr. of Salt Lake were married September 11, 1913, at 8 o'clock by Elmer L. Goshen, pastor of the First Congregational church. Mrs. R. S. Horth, her sister, attended. Mrs. best man was George H. Jensen, brother of the bridegroom. Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Jensen are at home to their friends in the Oxford apartments.

One of the pretty autumn weddings was that of Adella Grose and Warren S. Wood, which took place at the home of the bride's parents Friday evening. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Elmer L. Goshen at 8 o'clock. Punch was served by the Misses Lucile and Melba Anderson, cousins of the bride. October 5 Mr. and Mrs. Wood leave for Ogden, where they will reside.

One of the interesting weddings of the past week was that of Bitha Thomas, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd P. Thomas, and Clifford H. Jennings. The ceremony was solemnized at St. Mark's cathedral at 5 o'clock, the Rev. S. R. Holladay officiating. The bride wore a tailored suit of black chiffon broadcloth, a black hat trimmed with white ostrich feathers and a corsage bouquet of bride's roses. Miss Lillian Thomas, sister of the bride, was maid of honor, and Kenneth Culmer acted as best man. After the ceremony a wedding supper was served at the home of Mrs. W. F. Culmer in honor of the couple. Only the immediate relatives were present.

Mr. and Mrs. Cary Allen Tush are at the Hotel Utah spending their honeymoon. They were married in Denver, August 21. Mrs. Tush was Mrs. May E. Davis of Manitou.

Personal

Mrs. George Ross, having rented her home on Third avenue, is at the Hotel Utah for a short time, but will leave later to join Mr. Ross on the coast, when they will go to their new home at La Grande, Ore.

Dr. Ralph A. Bowdle has returned from a delightful vacation spent in Nevada motoring and also a visit to San Francisco.

Mrs. Kate Howard Baird leaves on Monday for Indiana to spend the winter with her son, Captain C. L. Baird.

Mrs. Homer W. Sherwood leaves today for Los Angeles, accompanied by her young son, Lynn, whom she will place in the Harvard school for boys in the suburbs of Los Angeles.

Mrs. Samuel R. Meyer of Milwaukee will be here tomorrow to spend a few weeks with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Max M. Weil. Mr. Meyer will join her later.

Mrs. John A. Marshall and her daughter, Miss Mary Marshall, are at the Hotel Utah, having arrived recently from the Orient.

Miss Madeline B. Weitz has returned after a four months' visit to New York, Atlantic City and other eastern resorts.

Miss Mary Lawlor, who has been visiting Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Lynch, has returned to her home in Indianapolis. Robert Lynch, their son, has gone to Philadelphia to enter school.

Mrs. William C. Jennings and daughter, Deborah, and Mrs. George M. Bacon and her youngest children are all at Pinecrest spending the week end.

Mrs. Wilma Burmeister Bishop is here from Pendleton, Ore., for a visit with her mother on N street.

A number of Salt Laker left the middle of the week for Boston to attend the Bankers convention, among them Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Riter, Mr. and Mrs. O. C. Beebe, Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Daynes, Mr. and Mrs. John C. Cutler and Miss Hazel Cutler and others.

Miss Edith Shearman has returned from a pleasant visit with the Longmaid family in Helena. Her sisters, Mrs. Harry D. Guo of New York and Mrs. Alma D. Katz of Portland, were also there, but have returned to their homes.

Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Wilson, now of San Francisco, are on their way east to spend a few weeks. They will meet their son, Russell, in Chicago, and he will join them for a short time. On her return trip Mrs. Wilson will be here for a short visit.

Lieutenant and Mrs. John M. Craig left yesterday morning for their new station at Columbus Barracks, Mo., having spent a few days at Fort Douglas packing their household goods and visiting a few friends there.

Mrs. Edward S. Sears of Boston, mother of Stanley Sears, arrived during the week, and is the guest of Mrs. R. H. Officer at her home in Haxton place.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul F. Keyser and Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Fox are back, after a week's fishing and hunting at the Fox ranch, near Soda Springs, in Wyoming.

Mrs. George T. Odell and her daughter, Miss Marie Odell, are expected home from San Francisco and Oakland soon. Mrs. Odell having improved greatly in health. J. Fred Odell will accompany them on the return trip.

Mrs. Bryan Conrad (Katherine Geddes), who has been on this continent for the past six months or more visiting her father, Theron Geddes, and her sister, Mrs. Hooper Dunbar, left last Wednesday, accompanied by her little daughter, to join Captain Conrad in Tien Tsin.

Mr. and Mrs. Leo Charles Miller, who have been on a hunting trip on the Fraser river in Canada, reached Vancouver on their return trip Friday evening, and will probably be home today.

Mr. and Mrs. David Keith are home from a trip of a few months through Europe, having met their son, David, there, and accompanied him to this country.

Major and Mrs. Frank D. Webster and their two daughters, Anne and Mary, left during the week for their new station at Urbana, Ill.

Mr. and Mrs. Claud W. Freed have gone east to attend the world's series of baseball games in New York and Philadelphia.

Mrs. Charles A. Faus, her small son and her mother, Mrs. J. B. Taft, left during the week for Missouri, where Mr. Faus will join them later.

Mr. and Mrs. James J. Campbell and their daughter, Miss Lois Campbell, left the middle of the week, after spending a few days at the Hotel Utah.

Miss Aline McMillan left early in the week for Boston to resume her musical studies. She will stop in Denver and in Chicago to visit relatives.

Mrs. Reed Marshall Hayward of Loveland, Colo., stopped off on her way to Spokane to spend a day or so with Captain and Mrs. A. O. Seaman at Fort Douglas.

Mr. and Mrs. A. R. Ware and their little daughter, Ethel, and Mrs. E. V. Borthelot expect to leave about the first of November for Denver to make their home there.

Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Broadhurst, formerly of this city but now making their home in Mount Pleasant, where Mr. Broadhurst has a government position, spent a few days in town during the week.

Mr. and Mrs. Vivian P. Strange expect to move shortly to the Cummings apartment on First avenue and D street, having taken the apartment of Mr. and Mrs. Ellsworth Daggett, who will go east for the winter.

Lieutenant and Mrs. W. E. Calk and Madame Calk have taken the time of Mr. and Mrs. George H. Wood, 659 East Third South street, for the winter. Mrs. Wood will leave soon for her old home in Mississippi to spend a few months.

Mr. and Mrs. Cooper Anderson and Miss Ruth Anderson will move in shortly from Olmstead and will take a house in town.

Dr. Katherine L. Eager will return next week from a visit of a month or so with her brother in Ely, Nev.

Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Franken have gone to Santa Barbara, and will go from there to San Francisco for a stay of a few months.

Mrs. A. D. McMullen and her two children, Virginia and Jack, who are visiting Mr. and Mrs. J. I. Burnett, will leave soon for Long Beach to spend the winter.

Mrs. Reed Smoot, who has been quite ill at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Arel Cardon, has recovered and will leave with Senator Smoot for Washington next Wednesday.

Mrs. Mark W. Lillard and her baby have gone to Twin Falls to visit Mr. and Mrs. Edward J. Roberts.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph McPherson Taylor are here with their baby visiting Mr. and Mrs. Frank Godbe.

Mrs. Frank Dole is here from Montrose, Colo., visiting Mr. and Mrs. R. K. Brown.

Mrs. Thomas Marionaux will remain in Denver for some time longer, visiting her sister, Mrs. Kistler.

Mrs. J. T. Armstrong and Mrs. R. S. Joyce and their daughters, the Misses Dorothy, Armstrong and Katherine Joyce, have been spending the past few days at the Hotel Utah, having motored down from Ogden Wednesday afternoon.

Mrs. Ward Winter Reese left yesterday for her old home in Pennsylvania to spend a few weeks.

Miss Elizabeth Trask of Denver arrived Friday from Boise on her way home, and is visiting Mrs. C. P. Overfield.

Mrs. H. C. Brown and Miss Edna Brown, who have been visiting Mr. and Mrs. Arthur J. Brown for a month, have returned to their home in Toledo, Ohio.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold B. Lamb have taken a house for the winter on Fourth South street and Ninth East, and will shortly be at home there to their friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Hibbard of Seattle sailed yesterday for a stay of a few months in Europe. Mrs. Hibbard was Miss Frances Joyce of Ogden.

Mrs. George Harris Smith and her small daughter have gone to Spokane for a visit with relatives. Mr. Smith is in the east on a business trip.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward T. Smith will not be in their new home on Douglas avenue till about the middle of the month, the place being not yet completed.

Mr. and Mrs. Herbert MacMillan have just returned from a trip to the northwest and to San Francisco, having been gone a month.

Mrs. Kiser and her daughter, Miss Jeannette Kiser, left during the week for San Francisco, to go later to their home in Pasadena.

Mrs. A. C. Sullivan is back after a visit of a few weeks with relatives in American Falls.

Russell L. Tracy, Jr., who has been ill with appendicitis is recovering rapidly, having been removed from the hospital to the Tracy home in Popper-ton.

Dr. and Mrs. C. B. Titcomb and their little daughter have gone to their new home in Pingree, Idaho.

Mrs. George Ames and her small daughter, Katherine, are home after a delightful summer spent at Santa Monica.

Miss Lena Hague and Miss Glen Walker have gone to Boston, where the latter will continue her musical studies.

Daniel Sullivan has gone east to spend a vacation of a month or so visiting the large eastern cities.

A. H. Peabody has returned from Philadelphia, having placed his eldest son, Alfred, in the University of Pennsylvania.

Mrs. P. Salmanson and her two children will leave October 12 for New York to visit relatives.

stay of some time in Denver, and is fully recovered from her recent illness.

Mrs. Ray Naylor and her eldest son sailed yesterday from Rotterdam for home, having spent the past few months in Europe.

Mrs. H. C. Wallace has been in town for a short time visiting Mrs. A. E. Graham.

Lieutenant and Mrs. John Craig, who have spent a few days at Fort Douglas, have gone to Columbus Barracks to their new station.

Mrs. Willard Young has gone to Portland, Ore., for a visit with her sister, Mrs. Ernest Eldredge, who is recovering from a severe illness. Mrs. J. E. Caine will join Mrs. Young there.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank L. Dodge are back in their own home in Federal heights, 1425 East South Temple street.

William Heath and Miss Julia Heath of this city and Mrs. Florence Morgan and two sons, Heath and Ray of Logan, arrived Thursday morning on the Pacific Limited from the east. They visited in Wilmington, N. C., and en route stopped over in Washington, D. C., and Chicago.

Mrs. J. C. Derks returned yesterday after a stay of six weeks at Redondo Beach, Cal. Mrs. Derks's sister, Mrs. P. J. Kraus of McGill, Nev., will spend two weeks in Salt Lake.

Lieutenant William C. Stoll and his fiancée, Miss Anna R. Adams, are spending the week end at Shady Brook farm as guests of Mayor and Mrs. Samuel C. Park at their beautiful country home.

Mrs. Carl G. Dresser and son, Thorpe, left Friday for their home in Arizona, after a stay of five months in this city.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry B. Dresser are now home after a month's stay in Denver.

Mr. and Mrs. Sidney H. Moore returned to their home in Metcalf, Ariz., on Friday, after a stay of four weeks in Salt Lake and Ogden.

Mrs. J. E. McCarthy and daughter, Helen, of Ely, Nev., have been guests for the past week of Mrs. Buckley of the Independence hotel. Mrs. McCarthy returned to Ely last evening, but her daughter remains in the city as a student at St. Mary's academy.

Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Pollack returned Wednesday from a three weeks' visit in San Francisco, Los Angeles, San Diego and Mexico.

Mrs. Steele Bailey, Jr., and Miss Sue Lyon of Lexington, Ky., are guests of Mrs. C. P. Harville at the Moxum hotel.

Mrs. J. A. Loffatt of Ogden is spending a few days with Mrs. L. N. Smith.

Miss Lillian Sargent left Thursday for Chattanooga, Tenn., to attend a convention of the ladies auxiliary to the Brotherhood of Railroad Trainmen. She will be absent about one month.

Miss Helen Wright of Berkeley, Cal., is stopping for a week with her aunt, Mrs. L. N. Smith, on her way to Indianapolis, where she will pursue her musical education.

Mr. and Mrs. C. I. Kugler are back from their honeymoon trip, which was spent motoring through the canyons and towns of northern Utah and southern Idaho. Mrs. Kugler was formerly Miss Vera S. Griffin. The young couple will be at home to their friends at the Palace apartments.

Mrs. Addison Cain and son, Brighton, left yesterday for Palo Alto, Cal., where Brighton will enter school. Mrs. Cain will spend a month in coast cities visiting friends.

Miscellaneous Events

Miss Leah Williams entertained about twenty-four of her friends Friday evening at a thimble shower in honor of Miss Bertha Goebel, a bride of the month. The evening was pleasantly spent in cards and music.

Miss Dale Youngberg gave a dinner on Tuesday evening at her home, 213 South Sixth East street, in honor of Miss Frae Korous, who left on Wednesday for California. After the dinner Miss Youngberg took her guests to a box party at the Orpheum. Besides the guest of honor the young ladies entertained were Misses Rose Korous, Thera Peterson, Nettie Beeman, Alma Carlson and Nellie Carter.

Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Hill entertained the members of the Jolly Five Hundred club on Tuesday evening at their home, 375 L street. Four prizes were awarded to the winners, and at the close of the evening supper was served.

Miss Irma Sims entertained Saturday afternoon in honor of Miss Georgianna Felt, a bride of the month.

Miss Helen Houtz entertained the members of the B. G. club on Tuesday evening. Next week the club will meet with Miss Rachel Peterson.

The S. O. D. H. club gave a theater party yesterday afternoon in honor of Miss Ade Stevens, who leaves shortly to make her home in Nevada. After the theater the party enjoyed a supper at Franklin's. The decorations of the table were in the autumn colors, and covers were laid for twenty. Mrs. M. R. Stevens and sister, Mrs. Jones, were also guests of honor.

The Quingenta club will meet Tuesday afternoon with Mrs. D. D. Houtz at her home on Third avenue.

Nearly one hundred members of the O. R. C. Ladies Auxiliary, and their friends were entertained by Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Langford, assisted by members of the order, at a five hundred party last Thursday evening, October 2. The rooms were beautifully decorated in autumn leaves, and the colors of the order. All enjoyed a most delightful evening.

Dr. and Mrs. C. F. Wilcox have announced the engagement of their daughter Ramona to Joseph J. Cannon, the marriage to take place very soon.

The young girls of the T. H. T. club were greeted yesterday afternoon at a card party given by Miss Margaret Clawson at her home on Canyon road, and later the members and their escorts were guests at a dancing party given by Miss Mary Godbe.

Mrs. S. A. Kenner entertained Wednesday evening at her home, the affair being a family gathering in honor of her nephew, Fred Midgley, who leaves shortly for New York. The house was beautifully decorated with autumn leaves and fall flowers. About forty guests were present to wish Mr. Midgley success. Mrs. Kenner was assisted in entertaining and receiving by Miss Maud Kenner, Mrs. Dorothy Quinn and Mrs. Edwin P. Kenner.

Miss Etta Sholes of Cottonwood gave a luncheon Saturday afternoon in honor of Miss Edith Kelly, who has just returned from Britania, B. C.

McDonald's
Salt Lake - New York

Hazel Dawn
by permission "The Chocolate Differ"

Chocolates

30¢ 60¢ 75¢

Among those present were the Misses Rita Hagerman, Caroline Dobson, Virginia Graham, Sadie Bergerman, Alva McGregor, Amy Gremayne, Lucile Hurd, Myrtle Hurd and Angie Kaghin.

Easton: Mrs. George C. Lambert, Mrs. Emily Y. Clawson, Mrs. Bert Bailey, Mrs. L. J. Brown, Mrs. Ella Squires, Mrs. Sidney T. Clawson and Mrs. George C. Lambert, Jr.

The Federation of Women's Clubs will hold a convention at Brigham City October 14, 15 and 16. The Ogden Short Line will put in a special party rate for an attendance of fifty more who pay full fare going and the benefit of one-third fare returning. (Advertisement.)

TRIBUNE WANT ADS PUL

HAMILTON'S

SMART SHOP

Fall Stock Complete
Opening Most Extraordinary High Grade and Exclusive Styles

Handsome Gowns, Smart Dresses, Elegant Tailor-Made Suits, Correct Street and Evening Coats, Creations in Hats

BLOUSES, CORSETS, NECKWEAR at lowest prices ever placed (beginning of season) for our Beautiful Merchandise.

Corset Department
a Feature

The CORRECT MODELS for the "NEW FIGURE" will be demonstrated by our Corsetiere—and all the latest and most attractive styles shown.

Most Attractive Neckwear

Just received in all the new Tango Ruching and Ruffling—In Batiste, Net and Lace Effect.

NEW BLOUSES for the Smartest of Suits

Separate Skirts

SEPARATE DRESS SKIRTS now in vogue. (In Bog McGregor Plaids), English Checks and Serges. Handsome Moras, Satins, Brocades and Velvets Most Stunning.

Hamilton's
CORRECT DRESS FOR WOMEN

216 SOUTH MAIN ST.

Piano Bargains

Kranich & Bach

UPRIGHT
in mahogany—like new. Regular price $600—Now

$250 Cash

Everett Piano

UPRIGHT
Good as new—Regular $650—Now

$300

New Pianos

We are not allowed to advertise prices, but during conference they are greatly reduced.

Clayton Piano Co.
A. B. CHASE PIANOS.

Mezzanine Floor, Hotel Utah Building.

Madam Bird Corset Co.

Designers and Makers of Made-to-Measure

Corsets designed and made for each individual; fit and wear absolutely guaranteed. Surgical Corsets and Abdominal Belts our specialty.

SALT LAKE CITY, UTAH.

Phone Wasatch 6959. 120 East Broadway.